Biography

Ann-Marie Gabel, CPA began as the Vice President, Administrative Services for Long Beach CCD in July 2007. She loves it here at Long Beach CCD and enjoys the complexity and challenges faced on a daily basis whether it be related to budget issues, parking problems, construction activity or computer breakdowns, just to name a few. Prior to joining Long Beach CCD, Ann-Marie worked at both Rancho Santiago CCD and North Orange County CCD within their Fiscal Services Departments. Ann-Marie started her career as an auditor with Vicenti, Lloyd & Stutzman, LLP where she worked on several community colleges and K-12 Districts and was able to glean how differently each college accomplished the same task: educating students.

Ann-Marie received her Bachelor's Degree from California State University, Fullerton in Business Administration and her Master's Degree from University of La Verne in Educational Management. She maintains active status for her certified public accountant certificate.

Ann-Marie is very involved in several organizations on a statewide and local level in support of community colleges. She is a Board Member of two Joint Powers Authorities responsible for property and liability and workers' compensation insurance claims. She is also a Board Member, representing Region 9, for the Association of Chief Business Officials (ACBO) and chairs both the FUSION Steering Committee and the ACBO Facilities Taskforce, as well as co-chairing the Advisory Workgroup on Fiscal Affairs. Locally, Ann-Marie is a Board Member for the Lakewood Oversight Board and Signal Hill Oversight Board for redevelopment activities and a Board Member for the Los Angeles County Schools Regionalized Services Corporation.

Ann-Marie is married with one son. They have a dog named Zoey and a cat named Amber, both rescues. She enjoys hiking, reading, fantasy football, and baseball. She is an avid Dodgers and Dallas Cowboys fan.
