In accordance with the “open door” mission of community colleges, the District shall admit any California resident, and may admit any non-resident, who meets any of the following conditions and is capable of benefiting from the instruction offered:

- Any person over the age of eighteen (18) and possessing a high school diploma or its equivalent.

- Other persons over the age of 18 years and who, in the judgment of the Chancellor or his or her designee, are capable of profiting from the instruction offered. Such persons shall be admitted as provisional students, and thereafter shall be required to comply with the District’s rules and regulations regarding scholastic achievement and other standards to be met by provisional or probationary students as a condition to being readmitted in any succeeding semester.

- Persons who are apprentices as defined in Labor Code Section 3077.

The District shall, in its discretion, or as otherwise federally mandated, evaluate the validity of a student’s high school completion. The Chancellor shall establish procedures for evaluating the validity of a student’s high school completion.
