World Innovations Network

Project & Mentor Based Educational Program
Fall Semester, 2022

Includes Workshops & Panel Discussions Across All Industries

September 16 – December 2 | Fridays 2 – 5 pm

Young adults are required to have 21st-century skills for the competitive job market.

Design & Innovative Thinking
Paid Internships & Mentorship
Transformational Leadership
Starting Your Own Company
Professional Development
Career Opportunities
Entrepreneurship Competition with Prizes
Networking with top Silicon Valley Executives

WorldInnovationsNetwork.org
The WIN Team is available during office hours at the Entrepreneurship Center.

WIN Co-Founder Executive Director

Mojgan Momeni has 20 years of non-profit/philanthropy experience in the education sector, with a significant part working with the world’s largest international educational nonprofit organization, iEARN (International Education and Resource Network), and a number of UN initiatives. Mojgan has worked in the IT/tech sector, and start-ups. Her passion is mentoring young professionals.

Entrepreneur In Residence

Farzad Naimi is a serial entrepreneur, CEO at Naimi Group, and co-founder - managing partner at RONA Holdings investment company. He brings more than 30 years of successful Silicon Valley startup leadership, including co-founding and being part of the initial team of four startups with successful IPOs in the U.S., Japan, and Brazil.

Dr. Yahya Tabesh a Senior Research Fellow at UC Berkeley, previously a visiting professor and research fellow at Stanford University. Co-founder, Polyup. His research interest is AI-based cognitive learning. Yahya also won the Erdős international award in 2010 for his sustained and distinguished contribution to the enrichment of math and computer education.

Professor Wade taught mathematics at West Valley College for over 30 years and has taught at the University of California at Santa Barbara and the United States Military Academy at West Point. He speaks regularly at regional, national, and international conferences and has been a Project Coordinator for the California Basic Skills Initiative (BSI) and was a Senior Mathematics Advisor for Texas Instruments, consulting on mathematical software technologies and professional development materials and workshops. He is currently the Mathematics Editor of the Pacific Crest Publishing Company.

Creative Marketing Director

Stu Smith is a University of Illinois graduate of art and design. He started his career in communication arts, focusing on digital media and branding. Most of his career history was in Chicago marketing ad agencies working on brands such as Absolut Vodka, Ford, P&G, Disney Vacation Club, Discover, Yahoo, Fujifilm, Pearson, Kellogg’s, Coca-Cola, Saturn, Allstate, and Adobe. Since he moved to the bay area, he shifted his attention to start-ups, cultivating more multidisciplinary skills to direct, manage, innovate, and develop small teams to achieve successful brand results.

Young adults are required to have 21st-century skills for the competitive job market.

WorldInnovationsNetwork.org